Peace of Mind Guarantee

Ken Helmer, Chief Deputy,
Morton County Sheriff's Dept.
Mandan, North Dakota
"Kenall lighting is stronger than our toughest prisoners."

[illegible]

"One of the outstanding features is that it's impossible for prisoners to obtain access to the inner portion of the lighting fixture. They can't break or remove the lamp, and they can't hide anything inside of them. It makes our facility safer," Helmer explains.

And Kenall's maintenance costs? As Helmer sums it up, "we haven't had any!"

That's "Peace of Mind."

For more information or a free product guide, call Kenall toll free at 1-800-634-5013.

GUARANTEE:
Kenall high abuse luminaires are designed and built to take exceptional physical punishment. When installed according to our instructions, Kenall will repair or replace any fixture rendered inoperable due to physical abuse within three years of purchase. Thereafter, Kenall will replace any refractor/diffuser broken during the life of the fixture free, subject to a handling charge equal to 25% of the published list price.

ACA

FIFTH EDITION

Dedication

The American jail was established more than two hundred years ago to fulfill a need for public safety. All the brick, mortar, bars and restraining devices cannot satisfy the public safety need without people — it is to people that this book is dedicated.

This fifth edition of the National Jail and Adult Detention Directory is published in the names of the thousands of men and women who work in the nation's jails. Without the sheriffs, deputies, wardens, correctional officers, teachers, psychologists, doctors, volunteers, cooks and bakers and others involved in the day to day operations of over 3,000 jails in the United States, public safety would not be maintained.

The American Correctional Association salutes the staff and governing authorities who make the resources available to run safe, humane and constitutional jails and detention centers.

Preface

Nearly ten million people pass through our nation's jails every year. The jail population has increased over 50% in the last five years. Jail practices have also changed considerably; however, lasting changes in our field are not easily measured in single year increments. Crime control programs, which have a history of over 300 years in the United States and several centuries upon the European and Asian continents, have to be viewed in the context of generations. Because jails are asked to fulfill various public wishes, they are, even today, being called upon to house persons who should ideally be administered by mental health and social service systems — persons such as the homeless, mentally ill, juveniles, mentally retarded, public inebriates, etc. Because of their assigned task, jails will always be misunderstood and suspect in any community.

As a society, the resolve of the electorate and policymaker is not only necessary but vital in determining the role of the jail or detention center. Should we not provide humane care? Should we not provide proper supervision to curb crime within the jail? Should we not follow professional standards? Lastly, should we not fund the programs properly? I believe all citizens and policymakers would answer "yes" to these questions if they were consistently informed of the difficulties we all face in corrections.

The American Correctional Association is dedicated to providing a variety of services to its members as well as the general public. An association's responsibility is to know what members' needs and requests are in order to do their jobs in a professional manner. One of the services to which we lend our expertise is publications. The information provided in this directory is pertinent and necessary to those members who are responsible for our nation's jails.

The American Correctional Association has published a directory of state and federal correctional institutions since 1939. The need for a directory devoted exclusively to jails was seen as a necessity in 1978 when the first edition of the National Jail and Adult Detention Directory was published followed by updates in 1981, '83, and '85. This fifth edition is more complete, has more statistical information and is indeed a significant document. We are privileged to use data gathered by the U.S. Census Bureau for the Bureau of Justice Statistics.

The Association cannot assume responsibility for errors or omissions; however, every effort has been made to ensure accuracy. We are interested in your comments so please do not hesitate to call or write the Association.

Every jail, each board of commissioners or supervisors, court judges, jail planners and merit system planners would benefit from a personal copy of this valuable and useful resource on jails. The information is important, exciting and should be used often.

In 1989 the Supreme Court of the United States established Syva's Emit® immunoassays as highly accurate and reliable tests for drugs of abuse. Numerous court decisions over the last decade have also affirmed the accuracy of Emit technology.

In fact, Syva Company has set precedents for twenty-three years. Syva invented Emit technology, the method now used by 98% of NIDA* and CAP† certified labs. This fast, effective technique is the most widely used test method for drugs of abuse in the world.

Syva gives you precedent-setting reliability and efficiency with the Syva ETS drug testing system. In addition, our new ETS Data Management System allows you to report and track test results more accurately, more easily than ever before. And for added flexibility and convenience, Syva's Emit assays run on most general chemistry analyzers.

Let Syva Company help you set precedents in testing for drugs of abuse. Call today for a FREE brochure entitled, "Frequently Asked Questions About Syva's Emit Drug Abuse Tests." Call toll free 1-800-227-9948, in California call 1-800-982-6135, and in Canada 1-800-267-6205.

These assays provide only preliminary analytical test results. More specific alternate chemical methods must be used in order to obtain confirmed analytical results (see package inserts).

First published in 1978, this fifth edition of the National Jail and Adult Detention Directory provides detailed information on individual jails and detention centers in the United States. The directory identifies and provides data for over 3,000 facilities.

The Bureau of Justice Statistics (BJS) of the U.S. Department of Justice contracted with the U.S. Bureau of Census to conduct the National Jail Census during the summer of 1988. The Census Bureau had a 100% response to their extensive survey. Rather than attempt to contact over 3,000 jails and ask basically the same questions, ACA opted to use the data gathered by the Bureau. Sheriffs and jail administrators had one less lengthy survey to complete and the Association saved time, effort and postage.

Requests to verify proper jail identification and current names of jail administrators were made of jail inspectors, individual jail systems and sheriff's groups in each state. Information is as of June 30, 1988. New data as to capacity or completed construction has been added when known and clearly marked with the current date.

We thank all who contributed to this publication — the Bureau of Justice Statistics and the Census Bureau for their diligent groundwork and jail inspectors and sheriff's groups for their input. This cooperative effort provides data vital to correctional administrators, legislators, researchers and other interested groups.

The American Correctional Association is appreciative of the support of the advertisers whose goods and services are represented in this directory. They provide essential resources to the correctional community by providing the latest and most innovative developments in correctional care.

The Association's Board of Governors also acknowledges ACA staff for their continuing efforts in organizing the data and resources needed for a comprehensive and useful directory and for finding new and creative ways to present statistics and information.

In the BJS report, a jail is defined as a locally administered confinement facility that holds persons pending adjudication or persons committed after adjudication, usually for sentences of a year or less. Excluded from the census were physically separate drunk tanks, lockups, and other holding facilities that did not hold persons after they had been formally charged.

Federal and state administered facilities, including the combined jail-prison systems in Alaska, Connecticut, Delaware, Hawaii, Rhode Island, Vermont, and the centrally administered system in the District of Columbia have been excluded from this publication. The ACA lists these systems in their entirety in the Juvenile and Adult Correctional Departments, Institutions, Agencies and Paroling Authorities Directory which is a yearly publication. Jails run by police departments are not included; however several large city systems can be located in these pages.

The BJS report "Census of Local Jails 1988," NCJ-121101 issued in February, 1990 will be followed by a detailed five-volume publication of individual jail data. Computerized data are publicly available through the National Archive of Criminal Justice Data at the University of Michigan.

HIGH QUALITY
LOW COST, ON TIME
CONSTRUCTION.

AND
THAT'S A PROMISE.

ABC's more than 18,000 merit (open) shop contractors are awarded work on the basis of merit... qualification, performance and, of course, cost. ABC contractors are dedicated to providing construction users with high quality, low cost, on time construction. We'll settle for nothing less.

And that's a promise.

How have users responded to ABC's promise of high performance? In a word: enthusiastically. As a result, ABC contractors are now building 75 percent of all construction in this country. The reasons for the dynamic growth of the merit shop are simple: merit shop contractors represent the finest craftsmanship, the most cost-efficient management techniques and the most competitive bidding strategies in the industry. ABC contractors are confident they can outbid and outbuild our competitors, foreign or domestic, and are proud to be part of the construction "team" that is truly "building America."

ABC MEANS BUSINESS

ABC's Construction Buyers Service (CBS) can assist you in locating the construction "team" for your next project. ABC can provide you, at no cost, profiles of contractors— volume, bondability, manpower availability, performance history and more. Thousands of users have used the CBS to identify qualified merit shop contractors. You can too.

If you would like to find out more about ABC and the Construction Buyers Service, give us a call at 202/637-8800. You'll be glad you did.

And that's a promise.

Directory User's Guide

Using the database provided by the Bureau of Justice Statistics allowed the editorial staff to take advantage of the time and effort saved to pursue new ways of presenting statistical summaries. Data are as of June 30, 1988.

Nationwide summaries include:

- Number of Jails and Detention Centers
- Mega Jails and Detention Centers
- Inmate Population in Jails
- Racial Distribution of Adult Jail Population
- Movement of the Adult Jail Population
- Use of Space in Jails and Detention Centers
- Jail and Detention Center Personnel
- Programs in Jails and Detention Centers
- Jail and Detention Centers Expenditures
- Jails Under Court Order
- Adult Inmate Deaths in Jails and Detention Centers
- Jails and Detention Centers Offering Health Services.

Statewide summaries precede each state's listing and give an overview of the state's county jails and detention centers. They are presented in total and further separated by the size of the jail including:

- Number of facilities
- Jail populations, admissions, releases and the number held for other authorities (federal, state and local)
- Personnel figures including categories of administration, correctional officers, clerical, maintenance, educational and professional. Also counted are payroll, nonpayroll and volunteer staff
- Expenditures, operational and capital, are totaled and broken down into categories of spending.

The directory listings are presented in a new format. Using symbols for small ◆, medium ▲, large ● and mega ■ size, jails can be easily identified by size.

- The first column lists the name, address, administrator, and telephone number of the facility
- County populations are noted for comparison purposes
- Institutions accredited by the Commission on Accreditation for Corrections of the American Correctional Association are marked with a star ☆.

Reading across the page, the second column gives:

- Rated capacity (number used to determine size of facility as set by state/local authorities)
- Total population as of June 30, 1988, further defined by number of adult males and females and juvenile males and females
- Total admissions from 7/1/87 to 6/30/88
- Year that construction of facility was completed and year of latest major renovation
- "Changes" states new construction or renovation completed, planned or in progress with resulting increases or decreases in capacity; recent updates are noted and dated.

The third column contains:

- Total number of staff and breakdown by race and sex
- Total number of correctional officers (custody staff), male and female
- Two lines of fiscal information – operating expenditures show the total in full numbers. The rounded out breakdown is by salary and "other" (purchase of food, supplies and contractual services). The same method was used for capital expenditures – total, then broken down by construction costs (including new buildings, major repairs or improvements), equipment and "other" (purchase of land, etc.) also rounded out
- "Programs" indicates the number of males and females in daily work release programs (DWR), on a typical weekend sentence program (WS), and other alternative programs such as community service. (Alternative programs are defined as those in which the participants do not stay overnight, but would be incarcerated in the jail if the program did not exist)
- "Comment" acknowledges court order or consent decree in effect; notice is also made if facility is privately run.

The following key appears throughout the book at the end of each state's listing if space permitted.

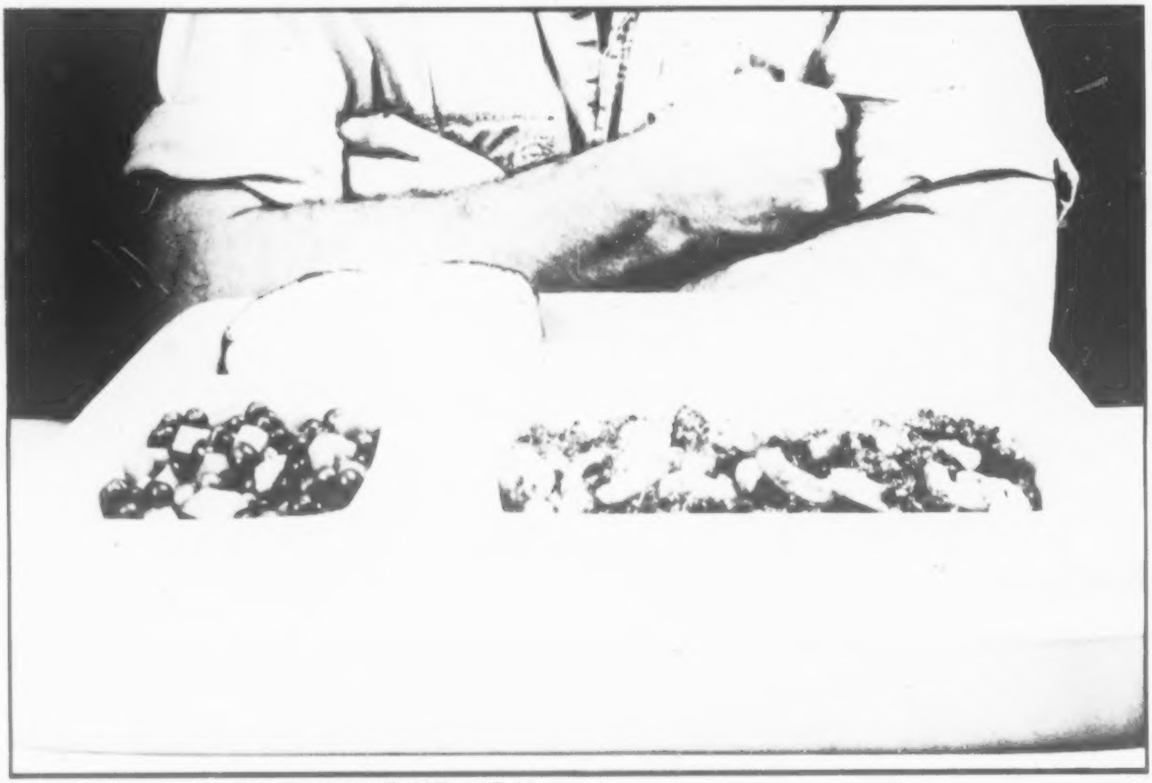
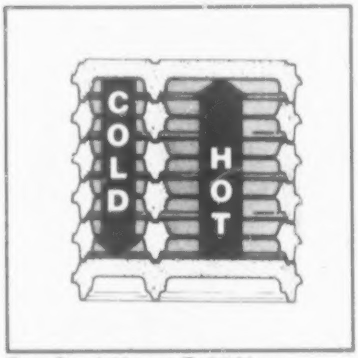
Holds Heat! Holds Up!



Insulated Servers Keep Hot Food Hot, Cold Food Cold.

The Heat's On To Keep the Heat In The Meals You Serve

Want to hold required 140°F serving minimums and find durable serviceware to do it with, too?



Tray Stack Keeps Food Hot
To Required 140°F Minimums.

Use Aladdin servers. They capture the heat that's cooked into food to keep it hot. Urethane foam wrapped in a tough, molded shell, insulates it. Perfect for isolation and satellite meals.

Because servers stack in an inter-locking tower, heat rises from each serving compartment, keeping food items above warm.

Cold food items in the stack, meanwhile, keep each other chilled. Materials and seamless molding technique make system impact- and torque-resistant. Protects your investment.

PLAN FOR A MAJOR PRISON BREAKTHROUGH

When the demand for expansion reaches the critical stage, you should know about a major new breakthrough in construction.

Of course, security is still the first consideration. At the same time, budget and deadlines are real-world threats. You need to talk to someone who knows how to build fast, cost-efficient, and above all, strong.

You need to talk to Integral Environments.

PLAN TO SAVE TIME. Integral Environments' unique method of Concurrent Construction℠ enables us to put a facility together in much less time than traditional on-site construction without sacrificing durability.

PLAN TO SAVE MONEY. Integral Environments' fixed-price contract arrangements allow you to know up front exactly how much your construction costs will be, without the annoying possiblity of overruns upon completion.

PLAN TO BUILD IT RIGHT. Integral Environments has experience in designing and building facilities to meet requirements as demanding, for example, as dormitories near underground nuclear test sites. Non-combustible features provide the optimum in security construction to meet all ACA requirements, with woven steel-rod doors, cement panel flooring, special security windows and air-conditioning ducts fitted with man-bars. Clearspan design allows you an uninterrupted interior view. Alarm and surveillance systems are integrated into all units. You are assured of the highest structural integrity due to our quality-controlled precision construction process.

Integral Environments, a major builder of secure military and government buildings, is putting Concurrent Construction to work on everything from holding cells to large detention facilities all over the country. Before you plan any new facility, plan on talking to us.

THE TOUGHEST PAINT ON THE CELL BLOCK.

Weak, ordinary paints and coatings won't last long in a correctional facility. With heavy traffic, intensive use and minimum maintenance, they'll fail in no time.

That's why walls, floors, ceilings, railings, doors and other surfaces should have Tnemec protection. Our high-performance coatings provide the best protection you can buy.

They're tough enough to be around for the long term. Which also makes them more cost-effective than ordinary paints and coatings.

Here's why. Regardless of initial cost, coatings that fail quickly are extremely expensive in the long term. That's because the surface preparation and application costs of painting are so high in relation to the cost of materials. And that's not counting the problems of painting in a crowded institution.

As tough as our coatings are, they're easy to maintain. They're environmentally safe and are low in odor and toxicity for use around occupied areas. A wide palette of colors is available as well.

When the going gets tough, get Tnemec. To learn more, contact your Tnemec representative and ask for our detailed coatings guide for institutional use. Or call us direct at (816) 483-3400.

The wrong sprinkler system can leave you liable for a lot more than just fire damage. That's why we created the only tamper-resistant sprinklers on the market, complete with special escutcheons that make it virtually impossible to attach bed sheets or clothing.

And now both PH-2 and PH-5 models are UL Listed to provide increased coverage, so you're always assured maximum security from fire and personal injury. To find out more, give us a call at 1-800-558-5236 or in WI 414-769-5500.

Since the beginning of history, people have gone to great lengths to perfect security systems.

History has proven: "Stone walls do not a prison make."

Hence the reason for modern security systems: but these systems can range from good to bad, like Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde, and they can be just as monstrous, particularly for staff hired to manage them.

That's why D.W. Thomson designs advanced computer security systems with undeniable ease of operation.

Systems that dramatically increase security, and in doing so, greatly improve security for staff and surrounding communities.

Systems that provide a faster payback period by reducing manpower requirements.

Systems that do not require the need for operating personnel to be experts in technical aspects of the systems themselves.

Systems with a proven track record of performance.

To date there has not been a single incident of escape from an institution in which a "D.W. Thomson" integrated system has been installed that could be attributed to the failure of the system.

Now, that's really something for the history books.

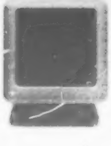
Only one home detention system



You're looking at the most sophisticated observation system known to man. Yet, there's only one way a detention officer can put them to use. By turning to the Mitsubishi Electronic Monitoring System (MEMS).

Unlike other systems, MEMS incorporates a visual telephone. So an officer can use his own two eyes for positive identification.

Continuous observation is provided by an integrated R/F transmitter and receiver/monitor.*

While an optional remote breathalizer* visually

ON GUARD PLUS / Integrated Random Calling and Radio Frequency

Criminal Justice Agencies across the country are readily accepting Electronic Supervision as a sentencing alternative - their first choice, HITEK's ON GUARD Systems. Over 3000 offenders are now being monitored, by over 140 agencies in 38 states.

In order to make Electronic Supervision more attainable and convenient, HITEK has developed the SERVICE BUREAU. From our central station in Fort Lauderdale, Florida we can monitor an unlimited number of offenders throughout the United States, Canada, and Australia, 24 hours a day, seven days a week.

For those agencies interested in monitoring their own case load - we can install a central station through our flexible lease agreement, with no up front cost.

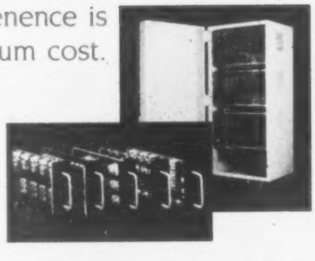
FROM CONCEPT TO COMPLETION

It originates as a security concept—an idea for a security control system that will grow as easily as needs change. Taking a creative idea and turning it into an innovative, custom-designed security control system is what has made Unitek such a successful company.

Our technical staff will work with you to create a system that addresses your needs, and simplifies operations. And that's only the beginning. The heart of our system incorporates two standard components: relay logic control racks and circuit cards with self-diagnostic features. By incorporating these two standard components, maintenence is reduced to a minimum cost.



Circuit Cards & Logic Control Rack.

As well as supplying the corrections industry with security control systems, we also design and install sound, paging, and nurse-call systems. So when you're ready to take a concept and watch it become a complete, cost-effective, and extremely reliable system, call Unitek at 1-800-272-9757.

FULLY COMPUTERIZED TAMPER-PROOF PHONES

A reliable phone system can reduce tension in your facility just like basketball, softball, weight-lifting and other recreational activities.

Our fully computerized, tamper-proof inmate phone system is self-operating and low maintenance. It also eliminates the possibility of fraudulent calls common with "live operator" phone systems. It is safe because there are no power lines on the phone to damage or start a fire. Its tamper-proof and fraud-proof features give your staff more control.

At Robert Cefail & Associates, we stand behind our product. We service our phone systems within 24 hours and at no charge.

Made of the sturdiest, vandal-proof materials, this system has been specifically designed to meet the special needs of correctional facilities.

Call the toll-free number listed below or write for a free information package which details how 2500 witness and jail personnel phone numbers can be protected and how fraudulent billing problems can be knocked out completely.

And when you call us, we'll enter your name in our grand prize drawing to win a free state-of-the-art Motorola hand-held cellular phone worth over $1000.

YOU'RE NEVER ALONE WITH DIGILARM.

SMALL, SILENT, DEPENDABLE PERSONAL SECURITY SYSTEMS.

Digilarm is the most advanced personal security technology available today and it costs less than older, less effective systems. That's why it's the system America's prisons will be using to protect visiting attorneys, civilian workers and officers.

Digilarm is small enough to fit in your pocket, yet powerful enough to send a signal more than a mile. It's breakthrough technology and it's already changing the way people look at personal security systems.

Press the transmitter button twice and a silent alert sign is sent to miniaturized receivers for immediate officer response. It's instant. It's digital and it's programmable. It even works through concrete and steel.

All Digilarm system components, transmitters and receivers are standard so you won't outgrow this incredible technology.

Call and arrange for a system demonstration today. See why Digilarm was selected by the New York State Department of Corrections.

You've got a lot of specialists in your institution. . . why not us?

Grand theft auto · Burglary · Embezzlement

Management · Dietetics · Service

Szabo is the only contract food service specializing in correctional facilities. So, when our specialists provide nutritional meals for your specialists — on time, three times a day, 365 days a year — we do a better job than in-house operations and contract services that "specialize in everything."

We take care of all your food service requirements. Which means you can get that responsibility off your already over-crowded plate.

And chances are there are a lot of hidden costs in your program: waste, pilferage, inmate litigation, purchasing expenses, and more.

If you compare your real costs against ours, you may be surprised at the money we could save you — while we improve the quality of your food.

Send the coupon for our free brochures How to Contract Corrections Food Service. And contact Szabo, the specialist you'll be glad to have in your institution.

Our informative brochures tell how to audit, write bid specifications, and analyze proposals for your correctional food service program. For your free copies, mail the coupon today.

FULLY COMPUTERIZED TAMPER-PROOF PHONES

A reliable phone system can reduce tension in your facility just like basketball, softball, weight-lifting and other recreational activities.

Our fully computerized, tamper-proof inmate phone system is self-operating and low maintenance. It also eliminates the possibility of fraudulent calls common with "live operator" phone systems. It is safe because there are no power lines on the phone to damage or start a fire. Its tamper-proof and fraud-proof features give your staff more control.

At Robert Cefail & Associates, we stand behind our product. We service our phone systems within 24 hours and at no charge.

Made of the sturdiest, vandal-proof materials, this system has been specifically designed to meet the special needs of correctional facilities.

Call the toll-free number listed below or write for a free information package which details how 2500 witness and jail personnel phone numbers can be protected and how fraudulent billing problems can be knocked out completely.

And when you call us, we'll enter your name in our grand prize drawing to win a free state-of-the-art Motorola hand-held cellular phone worth over $1000.

- Subject to the client's rights of privacy, members will respect the public's right to know, and will share information with the public with openness and candor.
- Members will respect and protect the right of the public to be safeguarded from criminal activity.

Professional conduct/practices

- In any public statement members will clearly distinguish between those that are personal views and those that are statements and positions on behalf of an agency.
- Members will be diligent in their responsibility to record and make available for review any and all case information which could contribute to sound decisions affecting a client or the public safety.
- Each member will report without reservation any corrupt or unethical behavior which could affect either a client or the integrity of the organization.

American Correctional Association
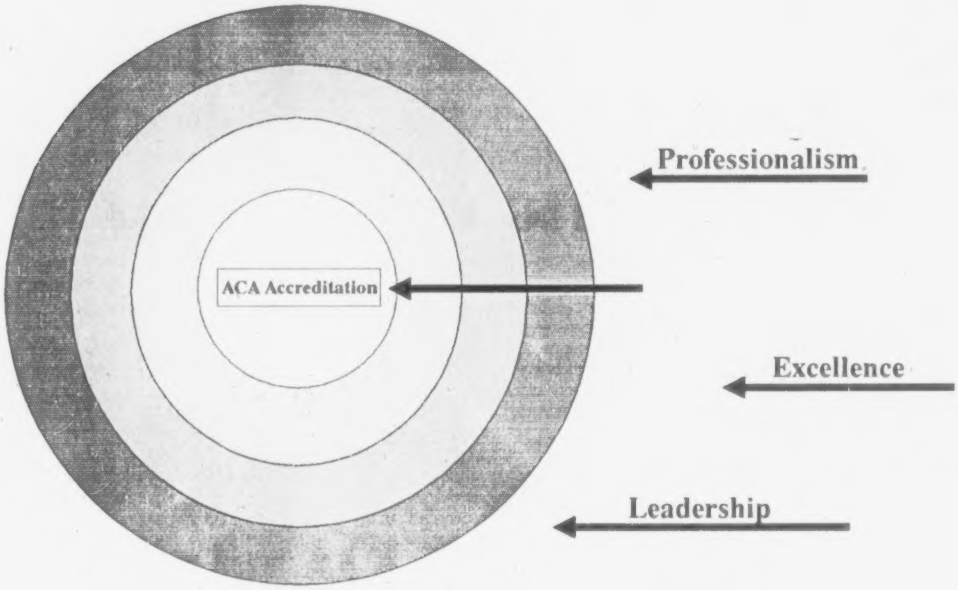
Standards and Accreditation

Aim for ACCREDITATION!



Quick Facts...

- Accreditation by ACA offers several benefits including improved management, a safer and more humane environment for personnel and offenders, and increased staff morale.
- Over 150 jails are involved in accreditation.
- 93% of those involved in accreditation report that the overall quality of the facilities and programs have improved because of accreditation.
- ACA accreditation is endorsed by the National Sheriff's Association, the American Jail Association, and the National Association of Counties.

The Hunterdon County Jail in Flemington, New Jersey was the first jail to achieve 100% compliance with the Standards for Adult Local Detention Facilities, second edition. This includes standards for administration, accounting, training, inmate rights, and security. According to Carl Frick, Corrections Administrator, the accreditation process was a good investment. The county will save $30,000 on its liability insurance premiums this year because of ACA accreditation.

"The standards and accreditation process provided an invaluable tool for us to measure our progress against nationally recognized standards. The great value occurs in the process itself. It takes teamwork, leadership, a willingness to excel, and pride to make it all work. I am proud to lead an organization recognized nationally as being one of the best."

James H. Dunning, Sheriff
Alexandria Detention Center
Alexandria, Virginia

"Once you enter the accreditation process and adopt the standards, built-in mechanisms set in, creating a better managed facility. The standards require you to make important management decisions that would otherwise be overlooked. Our company strives for excellence and professionalism, and standards and accreditation certainly helps us achieve these goals."

Tim Baltz, Warden
Houston Processing Center
Houston, Texas

"I challenge you to consider that accreditation is a process, an on-going process that never stops. It means that you have attained a level of excellence that requires every moment to sustain. It also requires not only a commitment from the sheriff, but a commitment that will reach right on down through every member of the staff to the inmate population."

M. Wayne Huggins, Director
National Institute of Corrections
former sheriff, Fairfax County, Virginia

In 1989, courts used the American Correctional Association's standards as a measurement for determining whether or not a jail could be defined as safe.

An inmate at the Denver County Jail testified that the jail was unsafe and the design defective which lead to injuries sustained in a fall.

The court concluded, after a review of ACA Standards for Adult Local Detention Facilities, second edition, that the plaintiff had not met his burden of proof on the claims that the jail had failed to observe, supervise and provide a safe environment.

Compliance with ACA standards gives a facility such as the Denver County Jail protection against frivolous litigation.

You've got a million things to do... And now they want you to build a prison?

Those responsible for the construction of correctional facilities are often caught in cells of their own.

The courts are in an uproar. Overcrowding is a major headache. Budgets are guarded tighter than your most secure block, and time... well, it's always past time.

At Heery Program Management we can't stretch calendars or loosen purse strings. But we can help you make better use of both.

How We Can Help

By becoming a day-to-day on-site extension of your facilities planning staff, Heery packs twenty-five years of expertise in design, scheduling, costing, bidding, contracts and construction. We know drywall pricing in the Southwest and the schedule impact of the Northeast winter snows. We may not build your new correctional facility. But we know how it should be built, what it should cost and when it should be ready.

Consider Heery your hands-on management tool, the watch tower designed to help you look good when you've got a million other things to look after.

If you're up against a wall and need someone on your team, contact Heery Program Management.

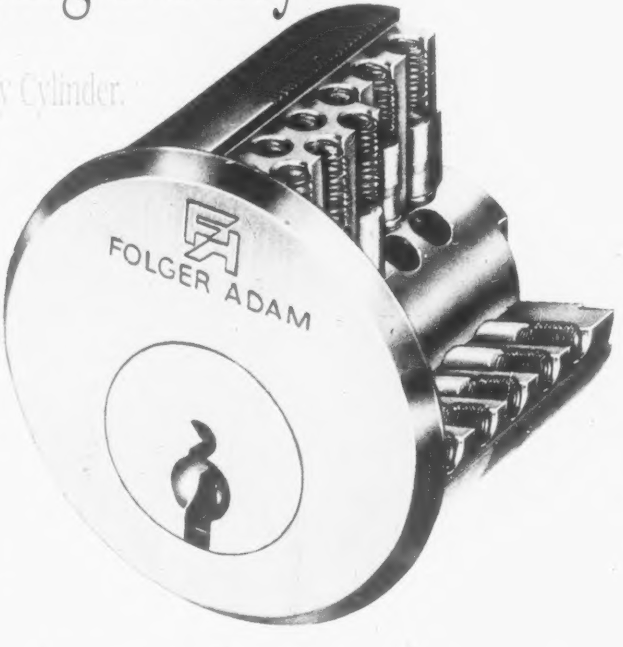
The only way we could make this key cylinder more secure is by keeping the keys.

Introducing the new Folger Adam Maxi-Mogul™ Key Cylinder. The most versatile, most secure cylinder available.

It's a whole new design*...

When you turn the key, you're opening the door to a whole new world of security. Engineered with three banks of interacting tumblers in the highest security models, this cylinder offers pick-resistance and key control never before available.



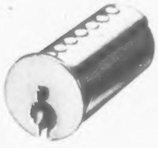
That allows greater flexibility

Now there's one key cylinder that's right for both the cell door and the office door. Offered in three levels of security, the Maxi-Mogul lets you choose.

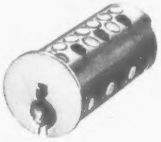
Level 1 is a six-tumbler version—a step above most available cylinders, yet competitively priced.

Level 2 offers the additional protection of combining from eight to ten, vertical and horizontal tumblers.

Level 3 gives maximum control with twelve to sixteen tumblers, and its own unique key grooving.



Level 1



Level 2

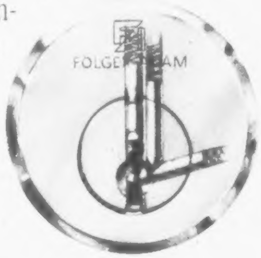
Level 3

For new or upgrade applications

Whether you're specifying door hardware for a new facility, or re-locking an older one, the Maxi-Mogul Key Cylinder is right for you. It's fully compatible with existing Folger Adam products in the field, and is now being used in many of our products.

[illegible] security than you may ever need

With a maximum of sixteen tumblers extending from the key plug into the body of the cylinder in two directions, picking is virtually impossible. The tumblers form a unique, powerful locking arrangement stronger than ordinary or "high-security" types of builders' hardware key cylinders.



Combining our multiple-tumbler design and key cuts, an individual keyway makes over 7 billion combinations possible. That extreme level of exclusivity, supported by our unique, computer selection program assures you that no other facility in North America will ever have your combination. No interchange or phantom keying—we guarantee it!

You needed a better, more secure locking system. So, we designed a product so unique that it's custom built for your specific security needs. Come to Folger Adam for innovation. We've been giving you more service and greater value for over 90 years. For details, write or call today.
